With or without onion?

We present to you the Tortilla Workshop, where we celebrate one of the cornerstones of Spanish cuisine: the tortilla de patatas. This dish, a symbol of Madrid's culinary tradition, embodies the perfect blend of simplicity and flavor, reflecting our philosophy of offering authentic and memorable experiences. In this workshop, an expert chef will guide participants through the creation of an authentic tortilla, revealing the secrets behind its preparation.

Additionally, participants will enjoy a tasting of the tortilla they've made, while the chef shares the history and traditions surrounding this iconic dish. Immerse yourself in this unique culinary experience and let the flavors of Madrid take you on a journey!

Much more than clapping

We invite you to take part in the fascinating flamenco clapping workshop, an authentic and vibrant experience that immerses you in the flamenco tradition of Madrid. This workshop, led by experts from El Lucero flamenco school, will teach you to master the flamenco claps, a fundamental element of this art form.

In this interactive workshop, you will learn the different types of flamenco claps, their rhythms, and how they are combined to accompany singing and dancing. What makes this activity special is the group dynamic, where all participants engage with each other, creating a unique atmosphere of connection and collective rhythm.

At the end, you will enjoy an authentic live show where the artists will perform several flamenco songs, accompanied by the dance of a talented bailaora. Her energy and stage presence will make you feel the intensity and emotion that this art conveys.

Art in every corner

Join an exclusive workshop led by Daniel Esteban at Thompson Madrid. In this unique experience, participants will be able to explore Daniel's innovative technique, which uses layers of smooth, veined or decorated paper, focusing on simplicity and abstraction rather than realism. This approach results in evocative pieces that capture subtle emotions, where the material itself becomes the true narrator. In addition, at the hotel you will be able to admire several of Daniel's works, which will further enrich your connection with contemporary art. Do you dare to tour the hotel and recognize Daniel's works?

This workshop embodies our commitment to fostering creativity and artistic expression, making it an ideal option for those wishing to immerse themselves in Madrid's vibrant art scene. Don't miss the opportunity to explore the deep narratives behind their work!

Live painting

We invite you to discover a unique live painting experience with the talented illustrator Marina Benito. In this activity, Marina will create illustrations in real-time, transforming any event into a dynamic and vibrant art showcase. The theme and format of the illustrations can be adapted to the client's needs: from notebooks, bottles, fabrics, to any other object that fits the occasion.

What makes this activity special is the magic of witnessing art come to life in real-time, creating an immediate and authentic connection with the audience. Every stroke, every detail unfolds before the attendees, who can interact with the artist as the creative process unfolds. This type of performance not only adds a touch of originality to the event but also generates an exclusive and memorable atmosphere, where participants take home a unique piece created on the spot.

- The price is quoted based on the design and the chosen object for the illustration
