

the
WOODWARD
GENEVA

Geneva's lakeside
home of haute living

OETKER COLLECTION
Masterpiece Hotels

LOCATION

The Woodward, a new hotel in the heart of Geneva, sits directly on the shores of Lake Geneva, offering panoramic views of Mont Blanc. Originally built in 1901 by French architect François Durel, in post-Haussmann style, the hotel is located on Quai Wilson and has been completely transformed and carefully reimagined by world-renowned architect Pierre Yves-Rochon.

ACCOMMODATION

- 26 suites including 2 signature suites
- 21 featuring a full lake view

FACILITIES & SERVICES

- L'Atelier Robuchon, Michelin starred restaurant, features the legendary chef's open kitchen concept, creating a theatrical dining experience for 36 guests seated around the counter, as well as two dining rooms that can be privatised.
- Le Jardinier is the restaurant's first foray into Europe, after New-York City and Miami. With its international experience, our Executive Chef Olivier Jean adds his talent to this new address which surprises with dishes where vegetables play a starring role, many of which are vegan, dairy and gluten-free. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, the concept of embracing nature will be reflected in the dining experience.
- Executive Chef Olivier Jean
- Both restaurants have a focus on using local produce and suppliers, including the high artisanal quality, Geneva-based Stettler chocolate and Geneva pastry institution Castrischer.

- 2 bars
- A private digestif lounge

SPA

- 1,200 m² / 13,000 sq ft Spa Guerlain at The Woodward, the first Spa Guerlain to open in Switzerland
- 6 wellness suites including one for couples
- 21-metre indoor swimming pool (the longest in Geneva)
- State-of-the-art gym
- 2 saunas
- 2 steam-rooms
- 2 Swedish baths
- 1 hot tub

COMPLIMENTARY SERVICES

- Breakfast for two at Le Jardinier restaurant (A la carte) or in-room
 - In-room experience bar*
 - Airport transfer *
 - A VIP welcome amenity upon arrival
 - Press Reader access
 - Free Wi-Fi
- *According to room category and length of stay

CONTACT

The Woodward
Quai Wilson 37
1211 Geneva, Switzerland
reservations.twg@oetkercollection.com

