

HOTEL IMPERIAL
A LUXURY COLLECTION HOTEL

Vienna

Royal Suite, Bedroom

PALACE OF IMPERIAL GRANDEUR SINCE 1873

ROOMS & SUITES

The stately Württemberg Palace turned into the Hotel Imperial in 1873. Ever since then, the hotel has gained renown around the world as a byword for stunning architecture and impeccable service. The 138 individual rooms and suites combine precious antiques and historical details with the latest comfort. Lavish bathrooms with tasteful accessories and bathrobes, sound systems with CD players and extra large TV sets, two external telephone lines with high-speed internet and air-conditioning are only a few examples of utmost hospitality.

SERVICES & CULINARY DELIGHTS

The Imperial Butler welcomes you in the suites. Exquisite delights from the kitchen can be ordered round-the-clock from our room service, and your choice of daily newspaper is delivered to your room every day of your stay. The gracefully restored Café Imperial is a historical landmark serving traditional breakfasts, lunches and dinners. After a drink at 1873 HalleNsalon, OPUS Restaurant awaits you with a fabulous dinner experience. Chargeable parking is available nearby. And your Concierge is ready to provide you with everything you need during your stay.

LOCATION & LANDMARKS

The Hotel Imperial is located directly at the Ring Boulevard, next to Musikverein – the elegant venue of the annual New Year's Concert. Vienna's famous downtown landmarks, the Vienna State Opera, museums and theaters are within walking distance. The Imperial Torte Boutique offers a delicious array of hand-made chocolates and cakes by the Hotel Imperial.

MEETINGS & BANQUETS

Five banquet venues leave no desires unfulfilled. Three elegant conference salons are equipped with state-of-the-art technology; each of them is an ideal location for business meetings or private events. The historic and elegant Festsaal (Festive Hall) is a special highlight, but also the Marmorsaal (Marble Hall) with its magnificent frescoes and crystal chandeliers, conjures up the spirit of 19th-century Vienna. Both of them are perfect venues for successful seminars and extraordinary events.
